VOICE OF ANGEL
ANGEL HARPER
SAG-AFTRA

My career transformed into a full-time professional performer when I came to Los Angeles and signed with Sutton Barth and Vennari:

- ➔ I have been a Voice Actor for animated movie Rug Rats, Batman and commercials/trailers plus ADR and voice-matching for films The Super and Hurricane;
- ➔ Voice several characters for the award-winning Radio drama It's Your World for 15 years.
- ➔ Voice Print has been described as versatile, vibrant, engaging, embodying characters that span a wide range of ages and cultural backgrounds.
- ➔ A voice perfect for perfect for PSA's, Cosmetic commercials and Animation character project.

Then I crashed due to a painful separation followed by a devastating divorce. I lost my groove, then my agent.

ABOUT ANGEL HARPER

As the first African American DJ at Cornell University (WVBR-FM); I learned my destination was to be Voice in the entertainment industry ...even though I grew up a poor Cuban Black Jamaican in one of Harlem's worst rat-infested tenements.

Following my college initiation into the voice over world I began to receive commercial and narration work in voice-over work in Washington, DC- winning the Achievement in Radio Award two years in a row, for her Outstanding Voice Over performance in Washington, DC, I 1987 and 1988.

Desperate, I turned to the Actor's Fund – they referred me to substitute teaching and as with everything I do, I quickly rose to the top. Soon I was teaching only fulltime, which though gratifying, isn't my purpose...so in 2019 made a step-by-step plan to return to the Voice Over industry. Now I'm READY...Yes!

Recently booked a Podcast Drama for iHeart Radio entitled "Lower Third" directed by Emmy award winner Jack Levy (February 22 2021).

During the Covid season I was awarded a grant to attend a 10-week Audiobook course (December 2020- February 2021)
